Eid'I Fitr (Feast of Ramadhan)

On this auspicious celebration, my family and I greet the Muslim Ummah, especially the Filipino Muslims, a Happy Eid'I Fitr Al-Mubarak!

The Blessed Month of Ramadhan not only extols the values of self-sacrifice and self-restraint but also promotes forgiveness, charity, peace, and unity so that hatred or vengeance will not be done. I pray that these teachings of Ramadhan shall not be forgotten after today's festivities, but rather, practiced in our daily life. May the words of the Almighty Allah in the Noble Quran guide us always: " Those who believed and led a righteous life are the best of creatures, Surah 98: Verse 7." With these words, the wondrous magic of the celebration of Eid'I Fitr will truly bring joy, happiness, and prosperity to us all.

Again, Happy Eid'I Fitr Al-Mubarak!
